

ISLAMIC UNIVERSITY OF SCIENCE & TECHNOLOGY AWANTIPORA, KASHMIR.

Office of the Public Relations

Awantipora, Nov 05: The Literati club, Dept. of English Language and Literature presented a theatre performance of William Shakespeare's famous play Macbeth. Two shows were held due to the overwhelming response from the audience. An artistic Performance of this magnitude was performed for the first time on the IUST Campus.

The Vice Chancellor IUST, Prof. Mushtaq. A. Siddiqi, who was the Chief Guest on the occasion hailed the club for the impeccable performance amid limited resources and theatre space constraints. "Such artistic creative ventures needs to be encouraged on the campus as theatre is a necessary element of University education and it also provides different insights into scientific breakthroughs," said Siddiqi

The renowned theatre personality of Kashmir Mr. Bhawani Bashir Yasir who was Guest of Honour on the occasion, applauded the student actors for their enchanting performance. Emphasizing the significance of theatre in contemporary times, Bhawani said, "A nation without theatre is a dead nation because Theatre makes us wise and vibrant. Values like honesty, dedication and new leadership skills could be built through theatre in educational institutions". Extending his support, he said he would provide free consultation on theatre to the Literati Club.

The Head Dept. of English Language and Literature Dr. Munejah Khan thanked the audience and the guests for their overwhelming appreciation. She also thanked the entire team for their successful performance especially Miss Tooba Rashid Asst. Professor Dept of English Language and Literature for Directing the entire play.

"The artistic performance was a fusion of creativity from students of school of Humanities and Social Sciences and School of technology put together , thus a huge success," said Dr. Khan.

Issued Through Public Relations